DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Products:

Group I, claim(s) 1-11, drawn to a biofunctionalized quantum dot with an antigen.

Group II, claim(s) 12, drawn to a formulation comprising a quantum dot and a liquid.

Group III, claim(s) 13-14, drawn to a quantum dot as a therapeutic agent.

Group IV, claim(s) 15, drawn to a quantum dot coated device.

Group V, claim(s) 16, drawn to a cell-quantum dot complex.

Method of making:

Group VI, claim(s) 17-22, drawn to a method for producing a biofunctionalized quantum dot functionalized with an antigen.

Methods of using:

Group VII, claim(s) 23-25, drawn to a method of imaging.

Group VIII, claim(s) 26, drawn to a method of medical imaging.

Group IX, claim(s) 27-29, drawn to a method of therapy.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-IX do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the groups all claim the special technical feature of a biofunctionalized quantum dot. The biofunctionalized quantum dot is known in the art; see Chan et al. Science, vol. 281, 1998, pp. 2016-2018. Thus it cannot be regarded as a special technical feature in the sense of rule 13.2 PCT.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Products:

Group I, claim(s) 1-11, drawn to a biofunctionalized quantum dot with an antigen.

Group II, claim(s) 12, drawn to a formulation comprising a quantum dot and a liquid.

Group III, claim(s) 13-14, drawn to a quantum dot as a therapeutic agent.

Group IV, claim(s) 15, drawn to a quantum dot coated device.

Group V, claim(s) 16, drawn to a cell-quantum dot complex.

Method of making:

Group VI, claim(s) 17-22, drawn to a method for producing a biofunctionalized

Art Unit: 4131

quantum dot functionalized with an antigen.

Methods of using:

Group VII, claim(s) 23-25, drawn to a method of imaging.

Group VIII, claim(s) 26, drawn to a method of medical imaging.

Group IX, claim(s) 27-29, drawn to a method of therapy.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
